

Dade Medical College Adopts Miami Senior High and Coral Gables Senior High

Dade Medical College's "Adopt-a-School" program took on two schools in one day on May 22, 2009: Miami Senior High and Coral Gables Senior High. Each school received a $5,000 check from Dade Medical CEO Ernesto Perez – Miami's will benefit the student incentive program; the donation to Coral Gables will be used for instructional programs, textbooks, athletic equipment and drama / band materials and equipment. Dade Medical offers diplomas and or Associate of Science degrees in the fields of Diagnostic Medical Ultrasound, Diagnostic Cardiac Sonography, General Radiologic Technology, Massage Therapy and Medical Assistant. Additionally, the schools feature a new diploma and A.S. program in Diagnostic Vascular Sonography. Founded in 1999, Dade Medical currently operates a campus in Miami and one in Hialeah; construction of a third in Homestead is near completion. Dade Medical College is accredited by the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools, licensed by the Florida Commission for Independent Education and is a member of the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges.
