

FAPSC press response to GAO revisions:

“It is disheartening to find out that a report issued by the office charged with providing Congress with objective, nonpartisan information was so riddled with flaws. It is unacceptable and we support United States Senator Michael Enzi’s call for an in-depth, transparent re-evaluation of the GAO report before any more hearings or inquiries are launched based on these ever shifting findings.”